ORPHEUM.

Little Caruso and company head the new bill which opens at the Orpheum today with a musical novelty which they call "A Night in Venice." The Colour Gems, a unique posing number; Fields and Wells, original comedians, and the Ballot trio of skilled equilibrists, round out the program which also includes the latest Kinogram.

LASALLE.

A fortune—or the girl he loved—which? This is the problem that confronted the hero of "The Fortune Hunter" at the LaSalle theater today. He could have one or the other, but not both. A delightful comedy with a story full of realities. A picture that palpitates with drama and bristles with humor. It's the unusual—the leap year picture. Adapted from Winchell Smith's famous play of the same title. Tomorrow Kathryn Williams may be seen in "Just a Wife."

CASTLE.

A clean, wholesome comedy for romantic maidens and those of the opposite sex whose thoughts in the sprintime lightly turn to love, is "Jack Straw," played by handsome Robert Warwick at the Castle today. First as a young nobleman exiled from his own country, he assumes the role of the ice man, then waiter and finally back to his own title to win the girl he loves. It is dramatic, appealing, amusing. The girl is played by pretty Carol McCormack, while excellent character parts are taken by Charles Ogle and Sylvia Ashton. Tomorrow "The Fortune Hunter" stars Earle Williams.

AUDITORIUM.

"Some One Must Pay," a powerful drama of domestic unhappiness, was shown at the Auditorium yesterday and proved to be an unusually interesting photoplay. It was presented by a splendid cast which included Gail Kane, Edmund Breese, Jackie Saunders, Hugh Thompson and other well known players. Some beautiful interior settings were shown. Other pictures were Mutt and Jeff, the Fox News of current events, and "Flat Broke," a Stan Pollard comedy. The bill will be repeated today. Dustin Farnum in "Durand of the Bad Lands," a six-reel western drama, will be tomorrow's feature with Pearl White in "The Black Secret" and the Fox News.

DEADLIER SEX.

Blanche Sweet comes to the Oliver theater today in her latest screen production entitled "The Deadlier Sex," the story of which revolves about a modern American girl who kidnaps her money-grabbing business enemy and takes him to the Maine woods, where the hundred thousand dollars in cash he has in his pockets won't even buy mosquito netting. Miss Sweet is given excellent support by Mahlon Hamilton as the man who wanted nothing but money could buy. Winter Hall as her father, Russell Simpson as the mountain guide, Roy Laidlaw as her right hand man of affairs and Boris Karloff as a French-Canadian trapper. Bayard Veiller, author of "The Thirteenth Chair" and "Within the Law" wrote the piece. The picture will run continuously each day starting at 1 o'clock.

WOMAN! THE RIDDLE OF THE AGES!

Blanche Sweet — IN THE — "Deadlier Sex"

You'll Enjoy and Recommend This Romance of a Modern American Girl

Why Is She So Deadly?

Because the passions of an uncultured age flamed in the breast of this American beauty.

Because the spirits of Sappho, Mona Lisa, and Cleopatra welled up in her soul!

A battle of a head-strong man and heart-strong girl.

Because she fought with the deadly weapon of the eternal woman.

She tricked the Wall Street Lion to the Main Woods, snubbed him, belittled him, showed him how useless was money, and brought the Lion to heel.
